To: The Japanese Society of Periodontology

Written Oath

The author(s) vow(s) to follow the requirements listed below when contributing the manuscript, as entitled below (the manuscript), to the Journal of the Japanese Society of Periodontology.

1. The author(s) give(s) assurance that the manuscript has not been submitted to any other journal, nor will it be, before the Journal of the Japanese Society of Periodontology has made a decision to reject its publication.
2. The author(s) give(s) assurance that the manuscript was drafted with adequate consideration of life ethics.
3. The author(s) give(s) assurance that he/she/they has/have written the manuscript and possess(s) all manuscript copyrights. The author(s) agree(s) to rewriting, correcting or making other revisions of the manuscript if the journal's editorial board deems this necessary before publication in the journal.
4. The author(s) give(s) assurance that the manuscript does not infringe upon the copyrights or publishing rights of any third party. If the author(s) has/have been granted a license to reproduce some portions of other work included in this manuscript by any third party, a photocopy of the license has been attached to this written oath.
5. The author(s) give(s) assurance that the contents of the manuscript do not infringe upon any third party's rights, and that if it should be found to be the case that infringement of any third party's rights has taken place, the author(s) will take full responsibility for all attendant circumstances and ramifications. These responsibilities of the author(s) also apply if the manuscript is rewritten, corrected or revised by the editorial board.

6.If the manuscript is approved for publication in the Journal of the Japanese Society of Periodontology, the author(s) will agree to transfer the copyright of the manuscript to the society.

7.The author(s) agree(s) that relevant information on the manuscript is to be provided to medical literature search engines and other similar service providers.
